European Countries say Take the Hint and out Mr Blaine's Reciprocity Ideas.

The style of reciprocity which the protectionists in the Senate adopted as the result of the agitation set in motion by Blaine seems likely to find an imitator in Europe. The reciprocity adopted by the Senate says, in effect, to the Southern Nations: "Remove or reduce your duties on our products unless you receive the additional protection of 14 cents per pound."

"That all-sophomoreng unsatisfactory and extortionate monopoly"—such was the blasting epithet with which the Senator finished his denunciation of the trust.

Now let us turn to the Consular reports and see what the trust is doing in the Philippines Islands. Those islands belong to Spain, and are situated to the southeast of China. The chief town, Manila, gives its name to the man who hems largely grown on these islands and extends well up in this country. The commerce of these islands is to the United States is so important ($6,40,000 worth of hemp sent us in 1888) that our Government refunds 90 per cent of the duty.

McKinley made a change in his Tariff bill, the effect that the drawback shall be 99 per cent of the original duty and took great credit to his committee for that action. He said: "We give to the capital and labor of this country substantially free trade in all foreign materials for us in the markets of the world."

On the expiration of the French treaties of commerce, a customs bill will be introduced in Parliament fixing a simple general tariff and giving the French Government the right to increase the duties on goods from countries that refuse to grant France economic advantages."

France has for months been greatly agitated over our McKinley tariff measures. She made efforts to get other European nations to unite with her in a scheme of general retaliation against us in order to bring the McKinley high tariff tinkers to their senses. Failing to secure the cooperation of those nations who put up the duty on our grain to 33 cents a bushel—a prohibitory rate—while admitting grain from other countries at 15 cents.

France is now willing to go further in her efforts to compel us to trade with her. We try to compel our Southern neighbors to trade with us by threatening to impose on our laws a threat that if they do not begin to trade within a year we will go to war on ourselves on every thing we buy from them. We drink our free cup of coffee now; but if they do not buy our "barrel of pork and bushel of wheat" we will take vengeance on them by compelling ourselves to pay three cents a pound more for our coffee. At present we buy South American hides free of duty, and the untaxed leather thus going into our shoes is clearly a benefit to all our people; but if South America does not open her markets to us we threaten to grow angry and make our own people pay a tax of $1.50 on every hundred pounds of hides they buy from South America.

In this way we shall get even with our southern neighbors that is a singular way to settle old scores. But strange as it may seem, France is ready. If she can't be compelled to adopt our smart Yankee trick, and, of course, to try it on us as the first and most guilty victim. Verily, "The nations do imagine a vain thing."

Operations of Our Twine Trust in the Philippines Islands, and the Efforts to Prevent the Hemp Business in Manila.

As Extortionate Monopoly Meets With Stern Opposition and Threats of Lynch Law.

The latest consular reports give some facts about the operation of some hemp monopolists in the Philippine Islands. In view of Senator Davis' attack on the binding twine trust in his speech in the Senate, and in view of the vote of fifteen Republicans with the Democrats to put binding twine on the free list, this report from the Philippine Islands is of special interest at this time.

In his attack on the trust Senator Davis said: "The entire business, including the sources from which that commodity is supplied is governed by a combination of all (or substantially all) the manufacturers of cordage and binding twine. That combination controls absolutely the raw material, coal, jute, etc., in the places where it is grown, and also limits the production of the manufacturer who and fixes its price. That combination consists of forty-two manufacturing companies in the United States, and seven or nine in Canada. These companies are bound together by the cohesive force of a common interest. They are superior to all law. In the Philippines Islands they limit and control the price of one-half of the raw material, and in Yucatan they control the other half. They have one man in New York to purchase for them all, and he

SMALL MILLERS SUFFER.

An Example of How the Tariff Protects the Strong and Oppresses the Weak.

The Senator so stated that the profits of this trust are 40 per cent, and that this represented $4,000,000 profits, as the amount of twine was on the 1888 crop was $10,000,000 worth; and he added that yet they came to Congress and asked that they would shut up their mills and cease production unless they received the additional protection of 14 cents per pound.

That all-sophomoreng unsatisfactory and extortionate monopoly—"such was the blasting epithet with which the Senator finished his denunciation of the trust.

Now let us turn to the Consular reports and see what the trust is doing in the Philippines Islands. Those islands belong to Spain, and are situated to the southeast of China. The chief town, Manila, gives its name to the man who hems largely grown on these islands and extends well up in this country. The commerce of these islands is to the United States is so important ($6,40,000 worth of hemp sent us in 1888) that our Government refunds 90 per cent of the duty.

But the Senate adopted the Sherman amendment, that no drawback should be paid unless an amount is $1 or more. This will of course affect a large number of cases where a drawback is paid, cases where small orders are filled and a drawback is allowed on the bag, tin cans, or other covering of the goods ordered.

The Miller's National Association has issued a circular showing how unfairly this will work in the milling industry. The circular says:

"This amendment will prevent 40 to 50 per cent of the exports of our country from receiving a drawback on the export ported about 400,000,000 lbs of flour to thousands of millions per annum of the pockets of a smaller miller. It means that the large flour miller will be compelled to pay the same shipping and the smaller exporter must pay about 25 per cent more for his bag, unles he can buy them in the American market, which is where a large part of his flour is sold.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1890.

For Congress
WILLIAM T. ELLIS,
of Davie County.

Mr. Rand H. Caldwell, a leading citizen of Russellville, was stricken with paralysis at Louisville Saturday and died in a few hours.

If Mr. Bourland should get to Congress and attract no more attention than he has in the Constitutional Convention for the last five weeks, he would certainly not set the world afire.

The Fulton Graphic claims to have reliable information that Hon. Wm. M. Smith, of Mayfield, will be a candidate for Circuit Judge in his district in 1892. The Kentuckian would like to see Mr. Smith run for something that would afford Christian an opportunity to show her appreciation of his services in passing her Registration Law.

The Democratic Wheelers of Christian County who assisted in disposing of one "Big Four" in August, will hardly permit themselves to be led out of the Democratic party by another mammoth quartette, made up of the supporters of those whom they defeated two months ago. The idea of men who swallowed this year's Republican ticket teaching Democrats how to vote! Ye gods and little fishes!

The KENTUCKIAN has no harsh words for its good friends, the Wheelers. It has no warfare to make upon the many true and patriotic men who make up the membership of the Union. There are, however, a few chronic agitators and one-horse politicians, some of them in this county, who need a first-class skinning and if they persist in their efforts to make this worthy order a pliant tool of the Republican party, we may find it necessary to show them up in their true colors.

One of the Republicans who went to Henderson made a speech, according to the papers, in which he pledged Bourland a majority of 1,000 or 1,500 in this county. If he can deliver the goods, we are mistaken in the material of which the Farmers' Union of Christian county is composed. Democrats are not the kind of merchandise to be turned over in job lots by Republican politicians. The above mentioned delegate must have imagined himself in the midst of one of his own campaigns.

Maj. Jno. W. Breathitt, chairman of the Congressional District Committee, has issued a call for a meeting of the Committee at Nortonville next Friday, Oct. 17th, to consider the nomination of a Republican candidate man. If the Committee puts out a candidate, Lige Sebree, of Henderson, will be the man. Mr. A. D. Rodgers, Mr. Sebree's associate in business, who is in the city attending the fair, is authority for the statement that that gentleman will in no case consent to be a candidate for Congress. But sometimes politicians change their minds.

Things are in a pretty mess in Louisville and a Republican is likely to represent the Fifth District in the next Congress. Mr. Jno. W. Headley, one of the Democratic candidates, didn't like the way the District Committee was organized and refused to submit his claims to the party's action. This left Mr. Caruth the only candidate to pass upon and the Committee met and declared him the nominee. Mr. Headley is still running, although he stands no show to be elected. In the meanwhile the Republicans have nominated Mr. St. John Boyle, a sharp lawyer and a shrewd politician, and are going to make their greatest effort. When it is remembered that Caruth came within a scratch of being beaten in 1888, the situation looks serious if not alarming.

Rube Burrows, the notorious train robber, who was captured near Mylewood, Marengo county, and confined in jail at Linden, Ala., was killed at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning while trying to escape.

He asked for his sabat, saying he wanted to get something to eat out of it. It was handed him without being examined, and he drew two pistols from it, covering his guards.

He made them release him, and locking one in jail, he started with the other as a guide to find J. C. Carter and others of his captors who had taken on his money. He got the drop on Carter but the latter drew his pistol and fired, shooting Burrows through the body and killing him instantly. Carter received a bad wound in the shoulder.

If people would take the advice of Buckner Leavell, the druggist who never start on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Coll. Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take.

THE CAT OUT.

Undoubted Evidence that the Democrats are Being Played for Suckers,

In its issue of Friday the KENTUCKIAN stated that the Christian county delegation to the Wheeler meeting at Henderson was composed principally of Republican politicians.

It now has the facts to back this assertion and open the eyes of Democratic Wheelers. Three out-and-out Republicans, two scatchers and one Democrat were present as delegates.

Two of the Republicans were then and are now members of the Republican county committee. These gentlemen are Mr. J. A. Boyd and Mr. J. T. Walker, whose names appear elsewhere in this issue, in a list of members of the Republican committee.

The Secretary of the Republican committee is authority for the statement that every district in the county was represented on Oct. 6, when the Republican committee endorsed E. G. Sebree for Congress. As two of its members were on the same day and at the same hour engaged in nominating Mr. Bourland for Congress, their proxies must have been held in this city by other members of their committee.

At any rate we have the spectacle presented of members of the Republican committee representing Democratic Wheelers in a Wheeler meeting and nominating a Democratic Wheeler for Congress, at the self same hour that the committee of which they were newly chosen members in another county was trying to get a Republican candidate on the track to run against the Wheeler candidate.

This double-dealing could have been done with but one purpose in view—to divide the Democratic vote and let a straight, high-tariff, anti-silver, force-bill Republican slip into Congress.

This has been the scheme Republican politicians in and out of the Wheel have been working on all summer. Various Democrats were approached and finally one was found whose vanity was tickled by the idea of being a candidate for Congress and consented to become the tool of designing men.

We cannot believe that Democrats who joined the Wheelers' Union with the understanding that it was not a political machine will be gulled into biting at this bait of Tom Reed Republicans who are playing them for suckers. The scheme is too transparent to deceive and too absurd to succeed.

Democrats in the Grange and Wheel have in Mr. Ellis a champion who has shown by his actions what he can and will do for them. How could it benefit them to retire him and let a Republican succeed him, or to elect an untried man of limited mental power, without even the ability to tell what he knows? Such a man in the Congress of the United States would be worse than a knot on a log, he would attract no more attention than a worm-hole under the bark.

Mr. Ellis is a man of brains and education. He is a gifted and a forceful speaker. He has ideas and knows how to express them. He can study the wants of his constituents and know how to benefit them. He is entitled to an endorsement and has merited the support of all classes of his constituents. He has been nominated by his party without opposition and Democrats should and we believe will support him to a man.

Total for the district 415,807; in 1880 the population was 365,642, an increase of 50,165, or 13.72 per cent.

Only two counties in the district show a decrease, viz: Ballard, 607, and Trigg 619.

The population of the principal towns in this district is as follows:

Hopkinsville, 6,457, increase 2,228, per cent. 52.68; Henderson, 8,820, increase 3,465, per cent. 61.59; Owensboro, 9,818, increase 3,587, per cent. 57.57; Paducah, 13,024, increase 4,988, per cent. 62.07.

Capt. Ellis will speak at the Court House to night and the voters of Hopkinsville should turn out and hear him, as the night speech is for the convenience of business men and working men especially. He will open the county canvass at the Court House at 1 p.m. next Monday and will speak at two other points in the county on Tuesday and Wednesday following.

A GOOD THING!

To our friends and customers: We are pleased to inform you that we now have a sure cure for chills, which is perfectly sweet. It has no taste at all.

It will cure any case of Chills. Quilt takes the heat off Chill Tonics, and lets us have a bottle of Powney's Sweet Chill Cure! Price 50 cents. One bottle holds enough to cure two or three cases of Chills. Come and let us show it to you.

Your Friend,
BUCKNER LEAVELL,
Hopkinsville, Ky.

Dr. Clardy Endorsed.

The following resolution was adopted by Social Union last week:

RESOLVED, By Social Union, of Christian County, Ky., that we recommend to the voters of this State Dr. J. D. Clardy, as a gentleman entirely worthy and in every way qualified to fill the gubernatorial chair of this Commonwealth.

THE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

The Republicans of Christian County have gathered together enough of the remains of their late party in this county to effect a new organization, upon the same plan adopted by the Democrats, with a member in each voting precinct constituting the county Committee. Many of the precincts failed to hold elections on Sept. 27, but vacancies were filled by appointment and the Committee organized on Oct. 6 with the following membership:

Hopkinsville No 1, A. H. Anderson; No. 2, H. W. Breathitt; No. 3, Abe Burks, col.; No. 4, Shelly Warfield, col.; Hamby, Red Renshaw; Fruit Hill, E. M. Barnes; Bellevue, Geo. Dabney, col.; Bennettstown, John Crane, col.; Longview, Hamp Bradshaw, col.; Fairview, 1, Grant Williams, col.; Fairview, 2, Jno. B. Everett; Kelly, J. A. Boyd; Union School, House, Jno. Hayes, col.; Nowstead, Buck Barker, col.; Lafayette, Aaron Sypert, col.; Garrettsburg, Garet Quarles, col.; Barker's Mill, S. R. Driven, col.; Pomroke, Chas. Ware, col.; Casky, Jerry Brumagh, col.; Mt. Vernon, J. T. Wilson; Wilson, C. W. Meacham; Stuart, I. H. Wicks; Crofton, C. A. Bourland; Seales, Jno. O. Morris; Bainbridge, Jo F. Turner; Beverly, Jack Sheridan, col.; Oak Grove, Sam Lewis Peay, col.

It will be seen that to back this assertion and open the eyes of Democratic Wheelers. Three out-and-out Republicans, two scratchers and one Democrat were present as delegates.

Two of the Republicans were then and are now members of the Republican county committee. These gentlemen are Mr. J. A. Boyd and Mr. J. T. Walker, whose names appear elsewhere in this issue, in a list of members of the Republican committee.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mr. E. G. Sebree, of Henderson, is in the city.

Miss Cora Bacon is visiting Miss Mary Clark.

Mrs. Jas. Fall, La Crosse, Wis., is visiting Mrs. Pauline Lander.

Mr. C. M. Brown visited St. Louis last week to see the President.

Rev. S. N. Vail and Mr. A. M. Wal-lis are attending the meeting of their Presbytery in Louisville.

Dr. Andrew Sargent returned Saturday from a trip to Louisville, where he had been to attend a meeting of the Mississippi Valley Medical Association.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Brown's Majority Increased.

The contesting board yesterday made public their decision in the Lander-Brown contest. Thirty three of Lander's votes and thirty of Brown's were thrown out, increasing Judge Brown's majority of 21 to 24. No attention was paid to the list of votes claimed by Lander who were not recorded on the books as voting for him.

Brane's Light Sentence.

The trial of W. T. Brane for the killing of Conductor Lemon was concluded at Nashville last week. He was given a sentence of two years only, for manslaughter. On Saturday he decided not to take an appeal and was committed to the Nashville penitentiary. As he will get four months' "good time," his sentence will expire in June 1892.

Special Registration.

The special registration Friday and Saturday was very light, owing to the scarcity of material left after the very full registrations last summer. So far as heard from the result was: Hopkinsville No. 1; No. 2; No. 3; No. 4; No. 5; Casky 5; Newstead 1; Union School House 1; Beverly 1; Bainbridge 2; Mt. Vernon 4; Fairview 1; Fairview 2; Belleview 1; Garrettsburg 1.

All Three Held Over.

Joe Leavell, Geo. Murphy and Bill Davie, the three negroes jailed as accessories in the killing of Geo. Rutledge by Geo. Griffey, last Wednesday, were tried Saturday before Judge Morrow. The trial occupied most of the day, as there were a great many witnesses. All of them were held over, Leavell under a $1,000 bond, Murphy under a $250 bond and Davie on his own recognizance for $100. The first two went to jail and Davie was released. Murphy may be able to give bail, but Leavell will probably stay in jail till March.

Hopkinsville Winners at Clarksville. Bachelor, first in 3 minute trot, Henry W. second; purse $200. Sallie C. first in 2:30 trot, Nora G. second; purse $300.

Dr. A. first in 2:40 pace, purse $150. Bachelor second in 2:40 trot, purse $200.

Dr. A. second in free for all pace, purse $300.

Joe first in 2:30 pace, purse $200. Total winnings $760.

Marriage Licenses.

Jos. D. Tyler to Jessie J. Settle. M. D. Kelly to Hibernalia O. Jones. S. E. Boyd to Nancy Littlefield.

COLORED.

Joe Lander to Lula Foster. John Bell to Mattie McCaulay.

TO KISSEL GOLDS.

Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

The Golden Troupe.

Martin Golden's excellent dramatic Company will begin a four nights' engagement at the Opera House tomorrow night with "The Martyr."

Miss Emma Butler is the leading lady. She is not only beautiful but possesses great talent and stage charms of a high order. Harry Robinson is the comedian and is a good one. "The Martyr" and other plays to be presented during the week are new to this city and are sure to please with their originality and merit. The company throughout is made up of ladies and gentlemen who are actors worth the name. Mr. Golden carries his own orchestra and band and will furnish the music for the fair company.

HERE AND THERE.

Vitalia Liver Pills, small and sugar-coated.*

R. M. Woodridge, livery, feed & stable, Fritz' stand. Telephone 144.*

There will be no vote on the Christian County Road law at the November election.

Mr. H. C. Richards is adding some very substantial improvements to his residence on South Main.

Lost, Tuesday evening a gold bracelet on South Virginia or South Main streets. Return to this office.

Mr. Morris Cohen has moved into the central one of the Forbes cottages, all of which are now occupied.

Bailey F. Allen of Montgomery county, Tenn., lost a large barn full of tobacco by fire on the 7th inst.

Mr. J. F. Rogers has been appointed postmaster at Kelly, vice his father Geo. W. Rogers recently deceased.

The County Wheel will hold a special called meeting next Monday, in this city. A full attendance is desired.

Judge Brown did the usual amount of police court business yesterday morning, disposing of three or four cases.

The young people will crown the week's festivities with the grand ball for years in the fine new Tobacco Exchange on Friday night.

Strangers from far and near will attend and the best of music has been secured.

J. E. Wicks, of Stuart's precinct, killed a deer last week which he brought to town and disposed of at 20 cents a pound.

Among the long list of pensions granted to Kentucky applicants Thursday was one for Stephen Watt, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Ellis McKee, Mr. L. H. McKee's little son, is now the happy possessor of one of the Times bicycles, secured by sending in $10 in subscriptions.

There will be a wheat sale at Julian Oct. 21 and farmers are invited to attend and sell their crops. It is expected that 40,000 bushels will be offered.

Bowles & Hayden will give several prizes to those guessing nearest to the number of seed in a large watermelon on exhibition at their art gallery this week.

Judge Brown will hold court for civil business the first Tuesday in each month. Parties desiring attachments or other processes can apply at any time.

The shed over McRea & McCoy's saw mill at Kelly was burned Friday and the mill itself narrowly escaped destruction. The loss was about $300, with no insurance.

The new residence of Mr. E. M. Flack is an ornament to one of the fashionable residence streets of the city. It presents a very handsome appearance and is much admired by all who see it. Mr. Flack moved into it Saturday.

The L. & N. R. R. will sell excursion tickets to Atlanta, Ga., and return on October 14th, 21st and 28th at $9.69 on account of the Piedmont exposition. Tickets are good until Nov. 3d.

W. W. ALEXANDER, Agt.

Coal has been discovered on the Harned place a few miles northeast of town, but its quality and the extent of the deposit have not yet been investigated. The prospectors believe they have struck a good vein of first-class cannel coal.

A great many wheelers were in town yesterday and the Democrats almost to a man are for Ellis and laugh at the idea of supporting the nominee of the little Republican sideshow at Henderson. Christian County Democrats don't follow Republican leaders.

Mrs. Nancy Huston Banks, formerly of this city, has been appointed one of the Lady Managers of the World's Fair. She was offered the place which pays $180 a month, through the instrumentality of Hon. James A. McKenzie. Mrs. Banks is a very talented lady and eminently qualified to fill this important position.—Henderson Journal.

About a week ago Omar S. Brown, the fugitive embezzler, sent in his resignation as a member of the Public School Board. His resignation was of course accepted and Saturday night the Board met and filled the vacancy by electing Mr. Dennis F. Smithson. Mr. Smithson is in every sense a suitable man for the place and in choosing him the Board has made a capital selection.

The performance given by the Pythian Amateur Minstrels Friday night was all that the public had been led to expect it would be. The audience was a very large one, almost filling the Opera House, and was made up of the best people of the city. All of the young gentlemen participating acquitted themselves handsomely and we regret that lack of space prohibits us from giving a detailed account of some of the features. The performance netted about $150.

During the visit of Mrs. R. W. Roach to this city last week her residence at Henderson, Ky., was entered by burglars and all her jewelry stolen, amounting in value to several hundred dollars. The thieves entered through a window, and doubtless made their exit the same way, as all the family silver was found tied up in napkins and lying near window, as if it had been dropped in flight. Two watches were stolen, among other valuables. Mr. Roach was sleeping in the house at the time, but was not awakened by the thieves.—Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle.

DRESSY NECK-WEAR.

Silk and Satins, Mulls and Nets White

Fashion seems to have run into extremes in regard to neck-wear. One sees either the greatest profusion of lace, mull, net and crepe lace, or none at all, according to the fancy of the wearer. The practice of wearing dresses without collar or ruching can not be too severely criticised. The habit is an untidy one and shows a decided neglect of that daintiness which should characterize the wardrobe of every lady of refinement and good taste. An excess of neck-dressing is much better than its absence; therefore, it is well to encourage even the most elaborate efforts of this sort.

There is, however, a happy medium which should be sought after by all ladies, especially those who are young and desire to observe the minor proprieties of the toilet. A simple ruching or a collar of linen will be found most appropriate for morning wear, while for afternoon wear pretty, plain ruchings or plaitings of lace will be found becoming and suitable. Among the charming accessories of a more dressy character are collars made of vandyked lace. These are set slightly full upon straight bands of mull or net with bit of foundation to preserve their shape. This kind of lace solves some trouble in laundering, as the net must be renewed. A much easier way is the use of a straight band like a linen collar. The lace is sewed to the lower edge of this band and a narrower lace of the same pattern to the upper edge of the band. This falls over this strip of linen and meets the collar proper. A bit of ribbon may be tied around the linen band, and will show through the meshes of overhanging points. This makes a very pretty finish, especially for young ladies and misses, and, indeed, is suitable for those of any age.

"Well, I might say something and I might miss it. I don't want to take the chances. If you do, go ahead."

"I don't feel fit, and maybe I'd better go and ask Tom. If he'll run the chances I will."

He came back and stated the case. Tom's collar was worse, and in his desperation he exclaimed:

"Gee whiz, no matter what! You can't kill me, and I shall die any how!"

Tom returned to the store and panted around for a spell. He couldn't read except with a great effort, but he came across two bottles, the contents of which rather took his eye, and he filled the smaller one with the mixture. When he was ready to give Tom a dose:

"Can't guarantee this, Tom. The doctor says the drugs are only an adjunct, and you know I'm no hand at doctorin'."

"I chance it," replied Tom, and down went the dose, and at midnight he was a dead man.

The doctor got the story as I have given it, put a jury on the case and had the particulars retold, and when they had nothing more to learn he said:

"Gentlemen, I can't say who nobody was to blame, and you'll return a verdict for him to use and not to be hanged, is made with a foundation of suitable material, over which is set in collar form a strip of embroidery. The side of this is bias holds of crepe de chine or crepe lace. A section of the crepe is attached to one side of the collar and draped across the front, the corner being concealed under the edge of the collar on the other side. This section is edged with lace or embroidery to match that used for the collar. Properly arranged this makes one of the prettiest neck dressings.

Another style has a straight high foundation collar, which is covered with straight net or point d'esprit. The folds of white are set little loops and ends of baby ribbons. Bands of velvet are attached to the collar on either side, and between these bands are straight sections of crepe de chine or net gathered and unblended with lace. He comes from the answer an advance of nearly $10,000 on three checks, apparently drawn by the father of the negotiator to his son's order. The forgery was, I am told, so flagrant that it might have been detected by a child. The money was paid on the checks, save a savage rate of interest, and was lost in a couple of days at the race track. Then the young scamp became alarmed and made a clean breast of it to his father. The latter promptly shipped him out of the country to either Europe or South America — exactly where, however, is not currently known.

One of the most notorious is now threatened with a deal of part of his plunder at least. His victim in this case was the son of a retired merchant of large means and unblemished reputation. He comes from the answer an advance of nearly $10,000 on three checks, apparently drawn by the father of the negotiator to his son's order. The forgery was, I am told, so flagrant that it might have been detected by a child. The money was paid on the checks, save a savage rate of interest, and was lost in a couple of days at the race track. Then the young scamp became alarmed and made a clean breast of it to his father. The latter promptly shipped him out of the country to either Europe or South America — exactly where, however, is not currently known.

Another style shows a straight high foundation collar, which is covered with straight net or point d'esprit. The folds of white are set little loops and ends of baby ribbons. Bands of velvet are attached to the collar on either side, and between these bands are straight sections of crepe de chine or net gathered and unblended with lace.
